THE 3

Retro revival

The '80s are back (at least for one night) at Peggy Kinnane's in Arlington Heights where retro party band Selective Recall plays Friday, Jan. 23. If it's '50s rockabilly or early '60s British invasion rock that gets you going, then stick around for the Neverly Brothers playing at Peggy's on Saturday, Jan. 24. Enjoy $4 Cadarozas Tequila shots and $6 Cadarozas margaritas.

Friday, Jan. 23, and 9:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 24, at Peggy Kinnane's Irish Restaurant and Pub, 8 N. Vail Ave., Arlington Heights, (847) 577-7733

Shed-your-blues cruise

Shed the winter blues and come out for Cruise Night Saturday, Jan. 24, at the Village Tavern in Long Grove. Enjoy dinner, drinks and the sounds of various tropical ports of call with the musical accompaniment of R.J. Express. The tavern's "cruise" sails from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. Hawaiian shirts are a must!

7:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 24, at the Village Tavern, 135 Old McHenry Road, Long Grove, (847) 634-3117

Wine your Valentine

Vintner's Cellar Winery says candy may be dandy, but it's wine for your Valentine! Customize a wine label for Valentine's Day with a personal message or photo. Couples can also create their own special wine blend and return eight weeks later to bottle, cork and seal 25 bottles with personalized labels. Appointments are being scheduled for Valentine's Day weekend (Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 14 and 15) with extended evening hours.

Taking Flight

Outstanding wine house equally attractive to beer lovers

Wine bars intimidate me. My knowledge of wine is limited, and even though I am at a wine bar, I know I will just order a beer. Will they frown on me for this choice? Is it the equivalent of going to a steak house and ordering pasta? Did the newly opened Flight 112 Wine House take pity at my beer choice, or were they more than accommodating? Read on.

Motif: Located in downtown Elmhurst, Flight 112 is part of a variety of businesses encased in the Mecca2 building, resulting in one of the more interesting layouts that I have seen to date. On the right-hand side of the building, there is Flight 112; on the left side, you will find an art gallery, a salon and a wellness center. So let's say your significant other needs a haircut — perfect, go with and partake in a glass of wine at Flight 112. Flight 112 is a rectangular room, and the large, black-marble bar itself is the centerpiece of the area. Behind the bar there are many bottles of
