Flight 112 Kicks Off ‘Cash For Kids’ Fundraising Event

Wine house hosts fundraiser to raise $2,000 to send five children to local day camp for kids with cancer

Elmhurst, Ill. – Flight 112 Wine House will kick off the start of a two-month fundraiser benefitting the TLC Camp, a local day camp that supports children with cancer. The “Cash For Kids” kickoff event will take place on Wednesday, February 24, 2010 from 7:00 p.m. to close at Flight 112 Wine House, 112 Park Ave, Elmhurst. Half price craft beers will be on special for those who make a cash donation to the TLC Camp. The month long fundraiser will offer the beer special every Wednesday through April. Four lucky attendees at the kickoff will take home one a door prize donated by several downtown Elmhurst businesses including Effigy Salon and Park Avenue Wellness.

TLC Camp provides children with cancer a one-week day camp free of charge. The camp is unique in that they are the only camp in the state of Illinois that allows a sibling to share in the experience. The average cost of a camper is $400. Flight 112 Wine House encourages local residents to help the wine house help raise over $2000 to send five children to the day camp.

Those interested in assisting the TLC Camp can make a donation at Flight 112 Wine House during regular restaurant hours or by contacting the camp directly at
